No enquiry.

Race 2 – 7.05pm. THE ‘BUILDING A BETTER WORKING WORLD’ HANDICAP

The Stewards interviewed Ms C. Gilbert, the trainer of BROWN VELVET, placed 1st as to the horses improved performance. The trainer reported that it was only the filly's second run for her and that having changed her training regime she had been working very well at home recently. The Stewards noted this explanation.

Race 3 – 7.40pm. THE DALLAS BURSTON GROUP 2017 CHAMPION HURDLE

Following concerns raised by a number of jockeys and the Clerk of the Course as to safety, the Stewards ordered that the hurdle placed at the 7f marker be omitted due to the glare from the setting sun.

The Stewards interviewed Ms C. Gilbert, the trainer of CAHILL as to the gelding's reluctance to race at the start. The trainer reported that CAHILL had underperformed this season and had been reluctant in his races. He had been scoped for stomach and wind to try and identify the problem and was subsequently treated for stomach ulcers in the hope that this was the solution for why he was reluctant in his races. The trainer stated that it is not in his nature to be reluctant to race, that he is clearly still not right and more investigations will be carried out to try and find out why. The Stewards noted this explanation.
