RACE 1 - 2.30pm	Handicap Hurdle	One Mile & 3/4
------------------------	------------------------	---------------------------

John Hamilton Head of Equine Welfare, requested that the 4 large flags alongside the parade ring be removed due to horses becoming unsettled in the parade ring.

The Stewards reminded Karl Kukk to arrive in the parade ring promptly.

The Stewards asked Karl Kukk trainer of GEORGE BANCROFT to explain the horse's performance. The trainer noted that the horse was carrying a lot of lead weight and the early pace had been too fast for him.

The Stewards the trainers representative (ANDY MALZARD) to explain the improved performance of JERSEY GEORDI. He reported that the horse had come down in the handicap. The owner, Tony Taylor reported that the horse was set to run at the front and maintain a consistent pace, however the horse found himself at the back but kept up a consistent pace when the others horses ran out of steam.

Nothing further to report.
